Climate Smart San José – Town Hall Meeting

Tuesday, February 20, 2017
7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.
City Hall, Council Chambers
200 East Santa Clara St., San José

The City of San José is finalizing Climate Smart San José, a plan to reduce greenhouse gas emissions, ensure a long-term water supply, and improve quality of life. The plan focuses on three areas – energy, mobility and water – and puts San José on a path toward meeting targets for greenhouse gas emissions reductions set forth in the Paris Agreement.

The public is encouraged to attend this Town Hall meeting to learn more about the plan and ask questions.

Agenda

7 p.m. – Welcoming remarks by Ashwini Kantak, assistant director of the Environmental Services Department
7:05 p.m. – Climate Smart San José presentation by Shaun Fernando, of PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), and Ashwini Kantak
7:35 – Q&A
8:25 p.m. – Closing remarks
